review 1: The novel depicting the lives of village farmers is a rare one, this book is the best in this context. Adding the fact that this book says the early life of Kaviarasu Vairamuthu, the story moves with the culture and life around Kallipatti. We can feel their lives on those days and can gain an immense knowledge about a village.

review 1: The lead character reminds me so much of all the people i have seen when I go to my native place. "mapilla" thatha who will be usually seen under the giant tree beside the road which leads to my grandparent's house, "Mittai" thatha who gives a kiss on my cheeks and orange mittai in my hand every time i see him, and finally my grand father who i can see from the road leading to the ...
