This is truly a remarkable post Tony. I think this can be a good example of Rand's 10x content, and on the other hand, this can be also a good example of your "content is in the eye of the searcher, regardless of what the owner of that website thinks," because you got my attention as a marketer as well.

What's one thing that you are constantly seeing on the web? Especially if you are on Instagram, Facebook, and YouTube? Come on, take a guess! No, I am not talking about people taking half-naked selfies of themselves or posting their lunches. I'm talking about people showing off. From taking pictures of their cars or money [!]

The Problem. To reduce bias and increase diversity, organizations are relying on the same programs they've been using since the 1960s. Some of these efforts make matters worse, not better.

Why Diversity Programs Fail - Harvard Business Review

Dr Brown, I haven't been listening to your program for very long but have enjoyed what little I have been able to catch. I have read this article about why the Jewish people are hated and though we will never know everything that creates this anger towards the Jewish people, it is always good to continue researching this topic.

Theodicy (/ ˌ θ i ː ˈ d ɛ ɪ s i /), in its most common form, is an attempt to answer the question of why a good God permits the manifestation of evil, thus resolving the issue of the problem of evil. Some theodicies also address the evidential problem of evil by attempting "to make the existence of an all-knowing, all-powerful and all-good or omnibenevolent God consistent with the existence ...

But for all I know, if people stop eating meat and adopt vegetarian ways, they could feed at least 10 times more people using the same efforts and energy. This is based on the principle of energy-pyramid which states that the at least 10 units of vegetation is consumed to prepare 1 unit of meat by feeding the meat-producing animals.
