Lavish love, wrapped in flesh. Immanuel, God with us. His presence is the present. Unwrapping and receiving God's gift of love changes my focus. Embracing Jesus infuses me with more love to give to others. His joy overflows and his peace passes my understanding. Jesus is the gift that keeps on giving.

Wrapped in His Love by Rebecca Ondov The temperature is below zero and dropping quickly "probably to -15 or lower. Old Man Winter gusted in a couple days ago, leaving cold temperatures and a foot of snow behind. Moments ago I bundled up in my long johns and Carhartts to go out and feed. Of course I had a warm horse blanket draped over my arm.

Wrapped by His Love

That's the beautiful thing about being wrapped in his love. When a woman receives this unconditional love through her faith in God alone, made attainable through the blood of Jesus, she is established and protected under his sealed covenant that cannot be unbroken. She is rooted in his expression of love found in scripture.
