Blessed with a Zazie that (for me ) captures the essence of the character originally created by Raymond Queneau, this is a 60's French film that continues to bring naive pleasure to those to whom it is a memory of the renaissance of French cinema in the early 60's, and (hopefully) will still retain a few inspirational moments for those see this ...

Translation of Zazie dans le Métro in English

"Zazie Dans le Metro" is a fine accomplishment by Louis Malle, a totally fresh film with colourful cinematography which gives a pop art style to the movie. What I liked most about this film is that Louis Malle does nothing to hide how deeply influenced by Charlie Chaplin he was. Especially the chase between the policeman and Zazie is a pure tribute to Charlie Chaplin.

La structure circulaire chère à Queneau se retrouve aussi dans les mots : il a lui-même noté à propos de Zazie dans le métro dans son journal en 1950 : « Commencer par la lettre A. Finir par la lettre Z. »<sup>10</sup> Le premier chapitre et le dernier chapitre se déroulent tous deux à la gare d'Austerlitz.
